Assign to Project

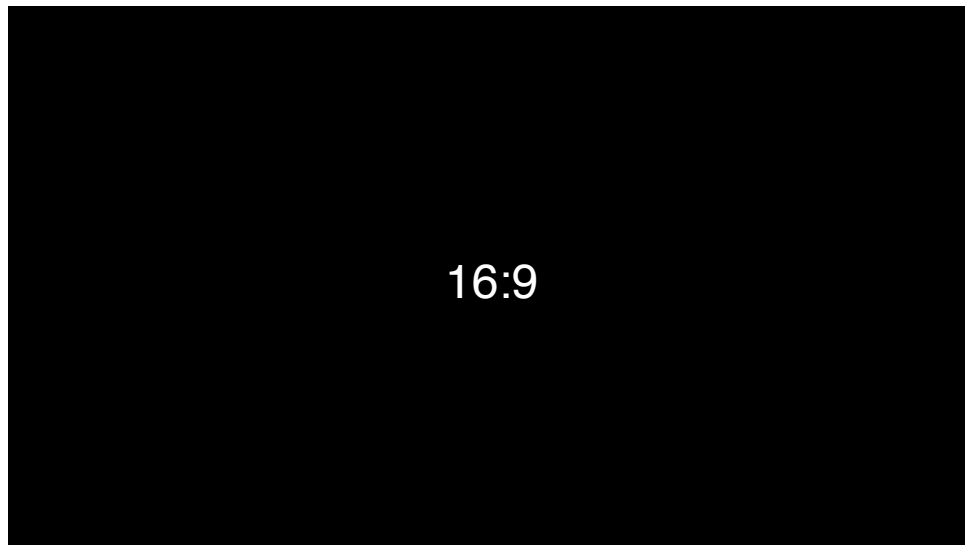

You can choose to assign all of the licenses you just purchased to a single project page right now, just pick the project:

Some long ass project name here

Create a New Project

If you don't have a project page yet, just connect your site to the community through your site's Dashboard > Add Functionality interface. You'll be able to add these licenses from the project page you've made then. Here's a video explaining more:

More Help

To get instructions on how to install manually and more about project pages, check out the marketplace docs.
